

BOKAMBOLO YE NHYIA

Let's come together

Everyday confronted with Racism!?

Where does it come from?

Why? What to do if you are offended?

Sunday, 12th April 2015 at 3 pm, Martin Luther Straße 16

We meet racism daily, whether in busses, when shopping or in streets, especially in darkness one might feel threatened.

What can we do?

This is the daily subject of Jana Brakemeier of „OBR - Opferberatung Rheinland“. She will visit us, tell us about her work and what we might be able to do.

Many nice and friendly people expect you with tea, coffee and cake.

Bring along your children.

A nice lady will take care of them.

Our cultural presentation this afternoon:

Sketch: „Doctor, not yet arrived!“

with Ismael Souaré and Fela Bader

Be curious! - Free entrance!

Martin Luther Street, close to Kaiserplatz – street at yellow kiosk

Questions? Please call: 01575-1463384, 0162-877-3703

Sunday 28th June 15: Police – Friend or Enemy?

In September 2015: Significance and Importance of the Native Language

In November 2015: Playing at School? –
Why is it important? Does it help studying?

Organized by West-Afrika Initiative Aachen, www.wai-aachen@gmx.de